Step 1:

Gather a team; involve Arrowmen in the process of creating your history book.

Step 2:

Look at the resources already available. These will be helpful as you begin.

Step 3:

Conduct interviews, assemble artifacts, and dig through records. As you write, be sure to have others review and edit.

Step 4:

Join other historians on the monthly topical webinar sessions. Email any questions, musings, or best practices to Lodge_History@email.oa-bsa.org

Step 5:

Submit your digital copy for inclusion in the OA Digital Archive.

Step 6:

Present a bound book to your lodge and council. Bring a copy to NOAC for all Arrowmen to see.
